

Fun with Similes

A simile is a comparison between two things using the words like or as.

- She was brave like a lion.
- The sheep's fleece was as white as snow.

Directions: First, read the simile example from the book. Then, practice writing your own simile. Fill in the blanks to complete each sentence with your own idea.

1. Emily's dress was as white as a cloud.

My shirt is as _____ as a _____ .

2. Emily's heart was as light as a grasshopper.

I feel as _____ as a _____ .

3. The lightning flashed like fire.

The thunder rumbled like _____ .

4. The snow was like a blanket.

The rain was like _____ .

Challenge: Write four similes describing a favorite animal.

Example:

The elephant's skin is as wrinkled as old tree bark.

Her tail is bristled like a paintbrush.

Her toes are like smooth, white river stones.

She bleats like trumpet and rumbles like a trombone.
